Tour de Acoma

is a 100, 50 and 25-mile bike challenge covering distinct areas on the Acoma and Laguna Pueblo reservations. An all-paved course that offers both the experienced and recreational cyclist a challenging and rare opportunity to ride through normally restricted tribal lands. This competitive course features opportunities for high speed racing as well as challenging uphill endurance tests. First, Second and Third Place participants, in both Men's and Women's categories, receive highly-coveted Acoma pottery. All proceeds go to the Haak'u Museum Foundation.
